

Sumner Station

Sumner Station includes 286 parking spaces with 41 overflow spaces in the lot at State Street and Hunt Avenue. Sumner Station is served by Sounder commuter trains as well as Pierce Transit.

Mode

Commuter rail, bus

Highlights

Start of service: 2000

Location: 810 Maple Street, between Narrow and Traffic streets, Sumner

Planning partners: Sound Transit, City of Sumner

Public art

The station's public art, "Shadow Caster" by Ellen Sollod, includes trellis-like structures located on each side of the platform to greet commuters entering from the north. In addition, an artist-designed, cast iron tree grate of stylized hops blossoms is used throughout the station.

